My own precious Toots:-

Just received your darling letter of Wednesday, the 5th, and honey I sure did want to kiss you and hug you after I read it. Sweetheart, I know how much you love, how much you miss, and how you would want to be with me, but the peculiar part of it is, I love it when you tell me how much you love me, for it makes me feel so happy. Honey darling, we sure must have met before we did because I too, feel like I known you long, long before we met and sort of believing in reincarnation, perhaps we were married and lived happily ages and ages ago. Sweetheart Toots, if I could only see a little money coming in steadily now, I would send for you, so that you can give your tired little self a rest and I could give you a comfortable home, but, my own sweet little wifie, keep on being brave and courageous, don't cry over my absence and just keep in mind that I am trying my best for you to soon come down. My precious jewell, if I could only kiss, put my arms around you and hug you for all times! Wouldn't I be happy? Anyway, honey, let's hope and pray for the time to soon come around, as I am sure it will come, please God, for as you said, there are only you and I in our little world. You always in my thoughts, day and night, and I in yours, as I always wanted. Don't forget, sweetheart mine, be brave and courageous, don't grieve, and go out and enjoy yourself as much as you can. Don't worry about your lonesome hubby, for he is taking care of himself as best as he can. Only hope, precious, that my practice will permit me calling for you. As it is, it is growing, little by little. Even as I am writing, precious, a man came in who wants me to take care of a little case. He said he would call and see me sometime this after-noon. Hope he does, maybe I'll make a 5 spot. Yes, my precious, since the 6th, I made a 5 spot. I wrote you about that, didn't I? It came just the way I hope it comes this afternoon. Unexpectedly, and just as I begin to write you, so you see, darling wifie mine, that you are my fortune, my guiding angel, for everything I write to you, something turns up, and who can wonder, when I have such a precious jewell who is my wife. Since this man just came in, I feel kind of happy. Only hope he turns up this afternoon. If he does, I will let you know in to-morrow's letter. That negro hasn't as yet shown up, but another fellow, a nigger, is trailing him and said he wasn't go to rest until that nigger comes up and gives me the case. Mr. Goodman is still treating me royally. Hasn't sent anyone up yet, but I expect he will as soon as anything turns up.

My precious, I'm so sorry you couldn't go up to Ray's Tuesday, but hope you went there Wednesday, for I know I happy you are when you go there. She sure is a wonderful little woman, and I can assure you, I'll never forget her or Mendel. It still comes to mind how Mendel came over to me and asked me if I have any money, and when I hear that he is getting along so nicely, I feel as if I were the one condemned. Please give them my best wishes and to Mendel my congratulations on his obtaining so go a position. I sure do wish a wonderfully good proposition for him turns up here, so he could come. And my little niece Helen? How is she? I'll bet she sure is pretty. Would just love to see her.

As to your dad, I'm glad he is working, but if ever he should be out of work and in desperate need of it just let me know, and I'll see to it that he gets a job. He won't have to remain idle an hour once he is here.

Sootsie, I don't understand your letter where it says I wrote I didn't receive your money order on Monday. I sent it on the 4th, and that is Friday. I got it on time alright and now my application is being acted upon. I wrote yesterday about it.

I am glad to hear that he & the baby are alright now. Please, Sootsie, go up to see them, and take Rose along. Enjoy yourself, my sweetheart.

Light of my life, I don't know what to do about the furniture. When you get here, I must have a home fixed up for you. I can't, sweetheart, I can't take you a furnished apartment and Sootsie, I hope you will understand my hatred for a furnished suite. I'll just buy a little furniture. Just tell me what kind, and you'll see you will be satisfied. I do so wish that you should pick out the fixings, but I won't send for you until I fix up a home, and in that case, I'll have to pick out the furniture.

I will close now, my own sweetheart darling, my own soul, my staff of life, with all my love, kisses and hugs and with hopes and prayers for your quick arrival,

Ever longingly, lonesomely and yearningly Your own

Joy.

Dr. & Mrs Lozaar want to be remembered.
